CONTEMPORARY JEWELLERY SCHOOL

ALCHIMIA award

ALCHIMIA award – Alchimia School of Contemporary Jewellery celebrates during AJW the “Alchimia Award”, a tribute to the new faces in the world of contemporary jewelry. This award, consisting of a two-week Intensive Course at Alchimia School in Florence, will be given to one of the promising artists that participate in Art + Jewelry: Intersecting Spaces exhibition.

“We are happy to give this award, in Athens Jewelry Week. We consider that is a learning experience to study in a city like Florence, at Alchimia. It is the best way to motivate and support the efforts of a young talented artist to the world of contemporary jewelry.”

JOYA award

JOYA award – JOYA Barcelona will give an award to an artist that represents politics in art jewelry, following the theme of the following edition of the event:

“Talking about the power of jewelry is potentially inexhaustible and fascinating. It implies returning to the beginning of humanity, not only as an adornment for the body, but as the ideological expression of culture, and even more importantly, POLITICS.”
